Construction Workers' Compensation

copperpoint.com

Southwest
Region

Since 1925, CopperPoint has served this vital part of the U.S. economy well. We know its distinctive risks and exposures: falls from heights, falling objects, structural defects, contractual risk transfer, equipment and vehicle dangers, and more.

No one works harder to deliver Workers' Compensation solutions that create a safer construction workplace, lowering client risk profiles and reducing insurance costs. We're here to protect your business, and your people.
